

RF Computers Privacy Policy:

1) RF Computers never uses personal information except for company use

RF Computers maintains a secure database to protect customer information. RF Computers will not buy, sell, provide, distribute or in any way release customer's personal information unless given written permission from the customer. RF Computers keeps only contact and payment history information on file. RF Computers keeps no financial information on file. All individual affiliates on RF Computers website post privacy policies with similar provisions and use secure transaction protocols. Be sure to read each privacy policy of an affiliate.

2) RF Computers contracts web hosting servers and affiliates which maintain customer privacy

RF Computers investigates affiliates and web hosts personally to assure they maintain the highest standard of customer security, post privacy policies, and hold and maintain security certificates so that all customer information sent or received is encrypted. RF Computers further maintains its own secure website

3) Opting Out

RF Computers includes an opt out option in all its emails, correspondence, newsletter and any other form of communication. To opt out of electronically generated correspondence, simply click the opt out link included on all such correspondence. A customer may also opt out by sending an email to remove@rfcomputer.biz or writing to us at RF Computers, 1438 West Rumble Rd, Modesto, Ca 95350

5) Policy Changes

RF Computers reserves the right to revise their Privacy Policies from time to time. New versions will be posted on this web site, so please check back periodically for updates.